

Institutionalised insanity, Suits and suitability.

Chris Spivey

Has anyone else noticed that not a day goes by where at least one of the cast from the Westminster Puppet Show are not in the news for being connected to sleaze?

Why is that?

That isn't a why as in "why are our politicians constantly in the news for the wrong reasons"... It is after all plainly obvious why that is.

The 'why' relates to why the fuck do so many people find this fact to be acceptable.

I remarked last week that there is not one single puppet out of a cast of 650 that I cannot link to sleaze... Not one!

Course, whilst I realise that I am not the only one who finds the fact reprehensible, that our lives are in the hands of a gang of self obsessed, self serving, greedy, criminal, sex mad, perverted nonces, our number is never the less small.

That is truly alarming and highlights the low standard of intelligence amongst those millions of zombies who believe themselves capable of objective thinking.

I know that a lot of people look at me and see a tattooed, foul mouthed, shaven headed, violent thug who is to be avoided at all costs. On the flip side of the coin they see the puppets of Westminster as immaculately dressed, well spoken, law abiding gentlemen, who have no other aim in life than to serve the public to the best of their capabilities.

And therein lies one of the huge problems that has to be overcome before we can move forward. People are conditioned from the moment they are born to think that 'Right is Wrong' and vice versa.

And, that simply just has to stop.

Personally, I couldn't give a flying fuck how people perceive me. I am me, I always have been and always will be.

I neither seek nor want anyone's approval because it is unimportant. Yet that attitude is viewed as being that of a misfits.

Individual thought is deemed as wrong, collective thinking is deemed as enlightened (at least in the collective arse about face thinking, running prevalent through the minds of the masses in today's society).

I don't need the government interfering in every single aspect of my life – I'm a big boy now, I know the difference between right and wrong and I don't need anyone telling me how to live my life... And that's how it should be.

What these zombies fail to see is that I know... Note: not 'I think'... I KNOW that I have more integrity, honesty and empathy in my little finger than those perverse mad cunts in parliament have as a collective body of people.

I could run rings around the useless ponces. And while that may come over as egotistical, you should by now realise that I do not consider myself special or superior in anyway, shape or form.

Neither have I any designs on being a leader, but by the same token I will not be a slave to anyone... Especially those sub-humans drained of any morality who shit in their ivory towers, imposing their warped idioms upon the masses via indoctrination provided courtesy of the Main Stream Media.

The reason that I can run rings around the useless nonce cunts is because I cottoned on a long time ago that what those reprobates in parliament are doing is purposely going about things arse about face.

And of course, when someone is doing things the wrong way – someone doing things the right way will always run rings around them.

For instance, if you try put a five and three quarter inch cube into a six inch deep, six inch diameter round hole in the ground it wont go without an awful lot of stamping. But try putting a five and a three quarter inch long tube with a five and three quarter inch diameter into that same hole and its a piece of piss.

That isn't rocket science and neither is Politics.

If politics was complicated the robbing, overpaid cunts wouldn't have so much time and energy to pursue so many other pastimes – none of them of any benefit to us.

It really isn't hard to make anything sound complicated no matter how easy it is, but that is what the cunts do on a day to day basis, thus fooling the masses into thinking: “fuck that clever cunt shit, I'll leave that to the clever cunts” – ‘Cunt’ being the operative word.

The corruption HAS to be taken out of politics and institutions that are supposedly set up to serve & benefit the public but in reality do anything but.

Radical re-thinking and radical change is needed.

And like it or not, in order to do that revolution must take place. These cunts are not just going to fuck off.

Once that has happened the following HAS to happen to prevent us going down the same road again:

- Parliament needs to have a serious overhaul. Politicians wages need to be linked to the minimum wage, and allowances for decorating, gardening, mortgages etc, removed. To lead the country should be an honour not a cash cow.
- Political parties must be outlawed. The number of Politicians, quangos and civil servants culled.
- No member of Parliament, the judiciary, law enforcement or local government must be prevented by law from belonging to a secret society such as the Masons. The Death penalty for crimes against humanity and particularly children to be imposed, where no doubt of guilt exists.
- Any politician or government representative caught up in sleaze and/or corruption must be dealt with in the law courts with the severest of penalties for those found guilty.
- All politicians, Police Chiefs, Heads of local Government and Government Bodies such as the NHS, must be held fully accountable for their actions and subject to criminal proceedings should they fuck up for any reason outside the remit of miscalculation whilst acting with integrity and in the public's interest. Parliamentary privilege must be removed.
- The UK & its Government, Law Courts, Police Constabulary and Councils must cease trading as corporations
- The government must put the welfare of the nation first and foremost.
- The Armed Forces must not be used for anything other than to defend our country and those under our rule.
- All commonwealth countries will be subject to the same laws as ours.
- The Government must print its own interest free money and have full control of the Bank of England.
- Britain must pull out of the EU

- The fraudulent National Debt must be written off.
- No Corporations or Banks must play any part in politics and all tax loopholes closed.
- Initially, all taxes must be spent on the basis they are collected for. For instance, road tax must be spent on the building of new roads and the maintenance of the existing. At the moment road repairs are funded by Council Tax. The ultimate aim of an overall government must be to do away with taxation on an individual I.E. Income tax etc, etc.
- Private wealth must be capped at a set amount (to be decided upon but say somewhere between 30 – 100 million pounds) inclusive of all assets outside a persons official place of residence. Anything over that cap must be taxed at a rate of at least 75% plus. The tax rate is to come into effect immediately and all British Citizens found trying to avoid the tax by failing to declare or placing their wealth offshore to face the severest punishment in law and be stripped of all reclaimable assets.
- The Monarchy (And Aristocracy where applicable) must be stripped of all land, property, and influence. Palaces, castles etc placed in the hands of a newly founded trust and the Royal Family made a government backed charity. The Royal family must be made fully accountable for their actions and government expenditure which will only be granted should their charity income drop below their legitimate outgoings which will not extend to anyone outside the direct line of the first in line to the throne. (personally, I would put the cunts on trial but hey, thats just me). If that occurs more than 3 years running, the Royal family will cease to exist (if the country wants a queen they will pay for it. If they don't, all the heritage and history that bring in the tourists will still survive through the specially set up heritage trust)
- The House of Lords has to be abolished. What the fuck is that robes and wigs dressing up fucking old bollocks all about. Its a breeding ground for nonces.

- Religion must play absolutely no part in politics, neither must any Church, be that church, Protestant, Catholic or Muslim have any influence or say in how the country is run or what is morally acceptable. Parish councils must be disbanded and churches must become self funding charities (once again, if people want religion they must pay for it themselves). All church land must be returned to the state.
- Common Law must be paramount. A governing Judge, responsible for the appointment of all judges must be elected and accountable for all his appointees – out of touch, geriatric paedophiles need not apply. Pomp, ceremony & tradition must be confined to the annals of history – once again, what the fuck is all that poncey dressing up, “yes M’lud” old bollocks all about? It relates to tradition and plays no fucking part in the righteous path of justice what so ever. It is a pantomime and pantomime’s belong in the theatre not the fucking law courts. That shit has to go. As do all hereditary titles, given titles and privilege – outside of those awarded a title for great service to their country or fellow man, above and beyond the call of duty. Lets afford real heroes the title of ‘Sir’, not those guilty of causing genocide in the name of peace or warming a seat up with their fat arses.
- The Temple and all its inner sanctums must go. Nonce ponce pomp and ceremony steeped in Satanic history which has no place in a modern progressive society. New fair laws must replace petty, revenue, nanny state laws, all superseded by Common Law. Petty acts of parliament and statute laws must be abolished.
- The City of London must become part of the UK and subject to the same laws.
- Racial intolerance, whether covert (Paul Dacre) or overt must be given the full force of law whilst paying attention to upholding Free speech (within reason). Some cretins are under the misguided – and vast majority of the time hypocritical – belief that free speech entitles you to say what you want, where you want, when you want. It doesn't, and it never has done.

- The law should set its own precedence, not adhere to it. All courts should be open and subject to public scrutiny
- Fines must be linked to wealth rather than legislation. A millionaire fined the same amount as an OAP for the same offence is not justice.
- Criminal punishments must be much harsher for those convicted under Common Law than they are at the moment. Animals have to be placed on a par with humans when subjected to cruelty. I believe that the freedom to which a person should be [rightly] be entitled to live their life as they see fit comes with responsibility and an acceptance of the severe consequences for their actions should they break Common Law once they reach the age of consent .
- NO HUMAN is above the law. The law must be equal and applicable to every man woman and child in the country.
- Gas, Electric, Water and public transport must be de-privatised and non profit making.
- No person [or animal where applicable] by law must be without adequate housing, food, water, gas, electric, competent free of charge medical attention & prescription drugs when needed. Everybody is a also entitled to free, sound, competent legal advice and representation. All QC's are to be paid by the government and forbidden by law to charge the public for their services – the same applies to Doctors & Medical staff and Teachers outside of private tuition (no two tier education system). The law on no belonging to any secret society must also apply.
- ALL secret courts are to be outlawed. NO Child/Children will be removed from their parents without CLEAR & EVIDENCED proof/reason for doing so and when necessary to do so placed in the care of a family member or close friend. Only when there is absolutely NO CHOICE should a child be placed in a care home or with foster parents. "In the best interests of the child" MUST mean exactly that.

- Charities must be totally transparent and accountable by law for misappropriation of funds. For example Cancer Research: The amount of money those cunts take and the fact that people are still dying of cancer is obscene and unacceptable.
- Treason – whether to the detriment of the country or its people to be punishable by death, all wealth and assets to be handed to the state.

And that is just for starters because as far as I can see, if those measures are not taken then I am afraid we are all fucked. History has a habit of repeating its self and that destructive cycle has to be halted.

The fact that a suit, inherited wealth, a private education and a title equate in peoples mind as someone who is clever, trustworthy and capable of governing the masses is absolutely fucking stupid.

The fact that our future is being shaped by a gang of 650 self obsessed, self serving, greedy, criminal, sex mad, perverted nonces & their puppet masters, all intent on bringing about a country where their power cannot be challenged is absolute fucking madness.

The fact that our future is being shaped by a gang of 650 self obsessed, self serving, greedy, criminal, sex mad, perverted nonces & their puppet masters, all intent on bringing about a country where their power cannot be challenged and who were elected by those same people who perceive people like me as the enemy is nothing short of institutionalised fucking insanity.

It has to stop and it has to stop now.
