Honest to Dog. I read stories like the first one on this page and it breaks my fucking heart, it really does.

Just what the fuck is wrong with the human race. At what point did we sink so fucking low?

There is never, ever a reason to mistreat animals. Anyone who does will just as easily mistreat a child.

If I ever caught up with the cunt that done this, or anyone who did anything as cruel as this for that matter, I would batter them fucking senseless.

And then when I had finished doing that. I would batter the cunt senseless a bit more.

They are vile scum and there is no place in the world for them.

If that makes me harsh, then I'm fucking harsh, but I am sick and fed up to the back teeth with of our species.

As long as people are capable of this type of thing, when there is absolutely no need for it, then there is no hope for us... Its bad enough that we are ruled by evil smegma.

I hope Princess P has a long happy life from this point on.

As for the cocksucker that caused her so much pain; May you die in fucking agony you worthless piece of maggot infested dog shit.

In regard to the second story!

I'm a bit lost for words to be honest.

Graham Redfearn, you are one sick cunt in need of some very serious help pal.

An abandoned dog has been found with a massively swollen head caused by her collar being embedded five inches into her neck.

The mixed-breed dog was found in a Toledo park on Monday with such severe injuries that dog wardens didn't think she would survive the night.

Despite her injuries, which have caused her head to swell, the dog is already responding well to the people taking care of her and has been wagging her tail and lapping up attention.

'She's got the sweetest little face, you can't not feel for this dog,' Lucas County dog warden Julie Lyle said.

She is working with Ohio University's vet department to find a way to treat the wound, with the medical bills being covered by the animal charity Cutie's Fund.

The dog, renamed Princess P, has a wound 3in wide and 5in deep, according to the Toledo Blade.

'It is so deep that you can see her trachea,' Ms Lyle said. 'It surpasses any wound we've ever dealt with here.'

She added: 'She was in such horrible shape, I wasn't sure if she was even going to make it through the night.'

Princess P's face is so swollen because the lymph nodes are unable to drain properly. Because of her injuries, no one is sure what type of dog she is.

Saved: Despite her horrific injuries Princess P is a friendly dog wanting attention, dog wardens say

Dog wardens plan to place her with a rescue group once her initial injuries have been dealt with, so she can fully heal and be found a new family.

Cutie's Fund, a charity that helps pay for emergency care for rescue animals, is helping to pay for Princess P's treatment.

Since it was set up in November, to help a chihuahua, it has raised $46,573 to help fund emergency care for more than a dozen dogs.

He also placed an advert on Facebook for work as a stable hand, saying he had experience of "stud work"

A pervert filmed himself having sex with a horse and dogs, a court heard.

Graham Redfearn, 41, was caught after he was arrested over a separate issue and police found the footage on his phone.

It showed him having sex with a mare as well as a pit bull terrier and vizsla.

He claimed he was “just experimenting” and said: “I just lay on the bed. The dog did the rest.”

Two days before he was due in court, Redfearn placed an advert on Facebook for work as a stable hand, saying he had experience of “stud work”.

Shrewsbury crown court heard how he was abused as a child and “raped by an alsatian” aged 12.

Redfearn, of no fixed address, admitted sexual activity with the animals and possessing extreme pornographic images.

He was banned from keeping animals and given a 10-year sexual offences prevention order
