Ticking away the moments that make up a dull day.

Christopher Spivey

Well good morning one and all, and whilst I hate to piss all over your cornflakes, let me tell you something that will put a proper downer on your day of rest... Least it should do if you’re not totally fucking bonkers.

Now if you are a regular reader of mine, you may remember that I mentioned the Georgia Guidestones in one of the recent articles I wrote about the very real prospect of WW3 being about to kick off.

Never the less, for the benefit of those who don’t know what the Georgia Guidestones are, I will give you a quick history lesson because it is really important that everyone knows about this dangerous turn of events that has just taken place.

The Georgia Guidestones – as in the American State of Georgia, not the country – came about when in June 1979, a fella walked into the Elberton Granite Finishing Company shortly before closing time, and introduced himself as R C Christian – whilst at the same time freely admitting that wasn’t his real name to the company owner, Joe Fendley.
Christian then explained that he was one of a number of people who wished to remain anonymous before proceeding to outline the mysterious consortium's plans for a Stonehenge type 'monument'.

Indeed, Fendley freely admits to not taking the plans too seriously to begin with, not least because of the enormous cost and huge quantity of granite involved.

However, as Christian continued to outline the massive undertaking, Fendley admits to becoming “intrigued by the unique project”, given the extremely precise placement, dimensions, specifications and engravings of the stones.

In fact by the time Christian had finished talking, old Joe was so excited about the project that he recommended his potential new customer to Wyatt Martin, the manager of the Granite City Bank with a view to him acting as an intermediary for the project.

Course, this meant that Christian had to reveal his real identity to the banker in order for him to carry out the necessary background checks – which came back as all being in order – after which Martin pledged never to reveal Mr R C Christian’s real name.

However, some researchers consider that story to be nothing more than a load of old fanny invented by old Joe Fendley, who as it turned out was not just a stone mason, he was also allegedly a high wanking Freemason... Which is probably nearer the truth.

Never the less, the project itself was to consist of seven engraved granite slabs (5 uprights sat on a buried base slab & topped with a capstone) weighing in at 237,746 pounds in total and protruding exactly 19 feet 3 inches out of the ground.

The slimmer of the five upright slabs was to be used as a central post and the other four, wider slabs arranged around it, with all five stones being set in place so as they were astronomically aligned.

Furthermore, in addition to the plans for the main structure, there were also instructions for an independent sixth stone tablet (see photo below), set into the ground a short distance to the west of the monument and incorporating a bit of background information about the stone tablets, with a time capsule buried beneath it – the contents of which remain unknown.

Now, according to the Elberton Granite Museum, the stones astronomical special features consist of:

The four large upright blocks pointing outward are oriented to the limits of the migration of the moon during the course of a year.

An eye-level, oblique hole is drilled from the south to the north side of the center Gnomon stone so that the North Star is always visible, symbolizing constancy and orientation with the forces of nature.

A slot is cut in the middle of the Gnomon stone to form a window which aligns with the positions of the rising sun at the Summer and Winter Solstices and at the Equinox so that the noon sun shines to indicate noon on a curved line.

The capstone includes a calendar of sorts where sunlight beams through a 7/8in. hole at noon and shines on the south face of the center stone. As the sun makes its travel cycle, the spot beamed through the hole can tell the day of the year at noon each day. Allowances are made because of variations between standard time and sun time to set the beam of sunlight at an equation of time.

Moreover, the 4 outer stones are all engraved with a list of ten ‘commandments’, which are chiseled out in eight different languages.

The following is from the Vigilant Citizen website:

Made of Pyramid blue granite, the Georgia Guidestones are meant to withstand the test of time and to communicate knowledge on several levels: philosophically, politically, astronomically, etc. It consists of four major stone blocks, which contain ten guides for living in eight languages: English, Spanish, Swahili, Hindi, Hebrew, Arabic, Chinese, and Russian.

A shorter message is inscribed at the top of the structure in four ancient languages’ scripts: Babylonian, Classical Greek, Sanskrit, and Egyptian hieroglyphs. It is important to note that those last four ancient languages are of a great importance in the teachings of occult mystery schools, such as the Freemasons and the Rosicrucians, organizations. Source

The monument was finally completed on March 22, 1980 and immediately became of great concern to many, not least because of the ten engraved commandments which read as follows:

1. Maintain humanity under 500,000,000 in perpetual balance with nature.
2. Guide reproduction wisely — improving fitness and diversity.
3. Unite humanity with a living new language.
4. Rule passion — faith — tradition — and all things with tempered reason.
5. Protect people and nations with fair laws and just courts.
6. Let all nations rule internally resolving external disputes in a world court.
7. Avoid petty laws and useless officials.
8. Balance personal rights with social duties.
9. Prize truth — beauty — love — seeking harmony with the infinite.
10. Be not a cancer on the earth — Leave room for nature — Leave room for nature.

A blueprint for the New World Order by any other name then, with the 1st commandment being of particular worry since it is well documented that the elite monsters want rid of most of us.

So with that being the case, in order to whittle our numbers down to a world population of around five hundred million, a staggering six and a half billion of us have to die.

And what is the quickest and most effective way to achieve that population reduction?

Well, I would imagine by Triggering a WW3 fought with nuclear weapons — and I truly believe that is exactly what the likes of the Cunt Cameron & Barry Obarmy are trying to do now by using the ISIS bollox as a legitimate reason to get the ball rolling... Or the clock ticking, if you prefer.

Okay, now comes the part where I spoil your Sunday morning.

You see, originally the granite slab with the English translation of the ten commandments engraved into it also had a block shaped groove cut into the top right hand, inner corner – as you can clearly see in the photo below.
MAINTAIN HUMANITY UNDER 500,000,000 IN PERPETUAL BALANCE WITH NATURE
GUIDE REPRODUCTION WISELY - IMPROVING FITNESS AND DIVERSITY
UNITE HUMANITY WITH A LIVING NEW LANGUAGE
RULE PASSION - FAITH - TRADITION AND ALL THINGS WITH TEMPERED REASON
PROTECT PEOPLE AND NATIONS WITH FAIR LAWS AND JUST COURTS
LET ALL NATIONS RULE INTERNALLY RESOLVING EXTERNAL DISPUTES IN A WORLD COURT
AVOID PETTY LAWS AND USELESS OFFICIALS
BALANCE PERSONAL RIGHTS WITH SOCIAL DUTIES
PRIZE TRUTH - BEAUTY - LOVE - SEEKING HARMONY WITH THE INFINITE
BE NOT A CANCER ON THE EARTH - LEAVE ROOM FOR NATURE - LEAVE ROOM FOR NATURE
And sometime in 2009, although nobody seems to know exactly when, a notch was cut out of the slab along that groove line – as you can once again clearly see in the photo below.

However, you may actually get a better idea of where the notch has been removed in the following photo which was taken from further away.

Now here’s the thing. Earlier this month there was a square block of granite fitted into that notch.

And on that square block of granite – specifically cut to fit perfectly into the notch – are four engraved letters, which are… Well, take a butchers for yourselves:

Now, just in case you are hard of fucking hearing, the inscription says 2014... That’s now for those who don’t know.

Are you getting nervous yet – or do you still think that there is fuck all to worry about?

Because if ya do, consider this: That square has been notched out since 2009 and as such it would be absolutely ludicrous to believe that these unknown, yet undoubtedly evil entities would only decide to put the 2014 block into place when there are only 3 months left of the fucking year.

And lets be honest, it is also an almighty fucking coincidence that these evil cunts install the block just at a time when our government leaders are that desperate to take our countries to war; they care not one iota that they have been caught out time and again staging faked scenarios in order to justify doing so… Yet despite being caught, they still press on with their plans regardless?

Now, the chances are that you and your beautiful children are going to die, possibly as early as in the next 6 to 8 weeks if you just sit back and do nothing.

Therefore, to avoid that happening you need to act now before its too fucking late… Just sayin’.

You all have a nice day now, y’hear.
